

YOSHA
COOK & TISCH

The Firm in the News Over the Years

Yosha Cook & Tisch – Personal Injury Lawyers focuses exclusively on cases involving serious injury or damages caused by someone else's negligence or carelessness. Buddy's cases have generated national acclaim in well-known national publications such as The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Washington Post, Cosmopolitan, Fortune magazine, and numerous others, including legal journals. Buddy has focused his practice on helping those seeking civil justice for physical and financial injury. Representing people from all walks of life, Buddy takes cases on a contingency fee, in an effort to assist the seriously injured who frequently cannot afford representation to recover compensation otherwise.

Indiana Pacers Ticket Giveaway

Indiana's "Mr. Basketball" is returning home! Eric Gordon is coming back to play at Gainbridge Fieldhouse at the Pacers vs. Rockets game on Thursday, December 23rd at 7 PM. Our firm's founder, Buddy Yosha, has been friends with and provided legal representation for the Gordon family for years. We are so excited for Eric to come back to Indy, that we are giving away two courtside tickets!

Every day, people are injured because someone else failed to use reasonable care. Those people could be landlords, store managers, pet owners, vehicle operators, or supervisors on a job site. These accidents could have been avoided, yet they forever change the lives of the victims of careless negligence. Unfortunately, many of these mishaps result in serious injuries, permanent disabilities or even fatalities. The attorneys at Yasha Cook & Tisch assist clients with a wide variety of Indianapolis personal injury cases. Contact us today for a free case consultation.

Louis Buddy Yosha has won nearly 100 jury verdicts and is considered one of the best personal injury attorneys in the country.

Buddy has won more plaintiff's verdicts than any attorney in Indiana's history.
