"When the insurance company tried to take advantage of me, Brandon Yosha was on their case ASAP. Brandon worked very hard to meet my expectation of my ideal settlement amount.

Also, Brandon was very professional and responsive every step of the way. And in the future if I need representation, I will not hesitate to call or recommend Brandon Yosha to my family and friends. Appreciate you Brandon, Job well done!!"

Lawyers at Yosha Cook & Tisch – Personal Injury Lawyers will be recognized in the 29th edition of The Best Lawyers in America®.

Additionally, we are pleased to inform you that BRANDON YOSHA will be included in the third (2023) edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America.

Best Lawyers in America Recognized Four Lawyers with Yosha Cook & Tisch, Brandon Yosha Among Youngest Ever Recognized

Brandon Yosha has become one of the youngest lawyers ever recognized by Best Lawyers in America, joining an elite group his father, Buddy Yosha, has been part of since 1983.

Best Lawyers is pleased to announce that the law firm of Yosha Cook & Tisch – Personal Injury Lawyers has four lawyers who have been selected by their peers to be included in the 2023 recognitions by Best Lawyers®. Three lawyers were included in the 2023 edition of The Best Lawyers in America® and one lawyer was included in the third edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America™. Since it was first published in 1983, Best Lawyers has become universally regarded as the definitive guide to legal excellence.

“Best Lawyers was founded more than 40 years ago to recognize the exceptional accomplishments of top legal professionals,” says Best Lawyers CEO Phil Greer. “We are proud to continue to present the most respected, unbiased legal awards worldwide.”

Best Lawyers has earned the respect of the profession, the media and the public as the most reliable, unbiased source of legal referrals. For the 2023 edition of The Best Lawyers in America, more than 12.2 million votes were analyzed to identify the top legal talent, as identified by their peers. This latest edition represents the top 7% of legal talent within private practice in America.

Lawyers on The Best Lawyers in America and Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America lists are divided by geographic region and practice areas. They are reviewed by their peers based on professional expertise and undergo an authentication process to make sure they are in current practice and in good standing.

Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America recognizes associates and other lawyers who are earlier in their careers for their outstanding professional excellence in private practice in the United States. Our “Ones to Watch” recipients typically have been in practice for 5-9 years. Recognition in a Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch list is based entirely on peer review and employs the same methodology that has made Best Lawyers the gold standard for legal rankings worldwide.

Best Lawyers would like to congratulate Brandon Yosha for recognition in the 2023 edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America. While obtaining large verdicts for deserving clients is deeply gratifying, Brandon is not a lawyer motivated by records, recognition, or fame. Instead, the younger Yosha is a passionate trial lawyer obsessed with delivering full justice for his clients. Brandon is proud to continue his father Louis Buddy Yosha’s legacy, strictly advocating for the people, not the powerful. Brandon explained in a recent interview that the best education he ever received was being raised by his father, Buddy Yosha, who Brandon considers the best trial lawyer in Indiana’s legal history. Brandon is also fortunate to have a close mentorship with Nicholas Rowley, who most consider the best trial lawyer of his generation.

Because of these two legendary trial lawyers and the example they set, Brandon pledged very early into his legal career to get in the courtroom as often as possible to tell his clients’ stories before a jury. COVID-19 and the global pandemic hindered his ability to fulfill his pledge; however, Brandon has several trials scheduled in the coming months ahead and is “chomping at the bit.” Brandon understands the power of a jury trial, the ripple effect jury verdicts can have on the insurance industry, and how verdicts can deter mistreatment for future negligence victims.

Among the youngest attorneys recognized by Best Lawyers, being only 29, Brandon reflected on this recognition saying, “I am honored and privileged to be recognized among such esteemed attorneys across the country.”

“I could not be prouder of my son, Brandon. I am very eager to watch him in the courtroom again soon,” remarked Buddy Yosha.

Best Lawyers would also like to congratulate Richard A. Cook, Bryan Tisch and Louis Buddy Yosha for being named to 2023 The Best Lawyers in America list for their work in Personal Injury Litigation – Plaintiffs.

Finally, we must recognize the pioneer and founder of Yosha — Attorney Louis “Buddy” Yosha. An influential figure at the heart of Indianapolis’ history, Buddy has been fighting for what is fair and supporting the next generation of lawyers for the past 60 years. For 40 consecutive years, Buddy has been selected by his peers for inclusion into The Best Lawyers of America®. Buddy has had the privilege and pleasure of fighting for everyday Hoosiers against insurance companies who place profits over people – and he has delivered more successful plaintiffs’ verdicts than any attorney in Indiana history. Yosha takes cases on a contingency fee, allowing seriously injured clients access to the best possible legal representation without incurring retainer fees before the case settles. Buddy is one of 17 Indiana lawyers recognized by the International Society of Barristers, and he served as President of The Indiana Trial Lawyers Association in 1990.

How to File a Claim Against an Uninsured Driver

Having auto insurance helps you feel a little bit safer behind the wheel. Although it can’t prevent accidents from happening, insurance coverage can help you pay for medical bills and property losses that result from your accident. But what happens if you get in an accident with a driver who is uninsured? Will your insurance still cover you? Do you have to file a special claim in order to obtain compensation for your injuries?

This guide covers what to do after getting in an accident with an uninsured driver in Indiana, including what your options are and when it’s time to contact a car accident attorney.

What happens when you’re in an accident with an uninsured driver?

How this type of case is handled depends on the coverage you have, who was at fault in the accident, and whether the other driver is uninsured or underinsured (meaning they have insurance but not enough to compensate for your losses). Generally, you have two options when you’re in this situation:

1. Claim benefits through your insurance company’s uninsured motorist coverage.
2. File a legal claim, like a personal injury lawsuit, against the other driver

How uninsured motorist coverage works

If you’ve been in an accident with another driver who is uninsured, one of your very first options is using your uninsured motorist coverage through your insurance company. This type of coverage is required for every auto insurance policy in Indiana, and you can only opt out of it by submitting a written request to your insurance company within the first 60 days of starting your policy.
